Car The telegraph announces that Mr. Mason hairman of the Committee on horeign Relations in the Senate, has introduced "a joint resolution au thorizing the President to take such measure a minst l'araguay as the refusal of that republic make reparation for firing into the steamer Wat form our readers, is taken in pursuance of the requ tion made by the President in his annual messa menting some mouths ago on the foreign pro cy of the message, we expressed, it may be reme and excessively so It, so far forth, takes the war-making power out of the hands of Congress, where tion places it, and gives it to the Presiwer than he knows how to exercise becomingly. It merely its spirit, but almost its very letter. It is grossly unconstitutional. Moreover, it is, we believe, unprecedented; but, if not an precedented, it corrainly deserves to be unparalleled. Furthermore, not to enlarge on its essential enormity, there is every reason to believe that it is just the most in specifient course that could be adopted with re-pect to Paraguay. The after of the Water to death that to Paraguay. The after of the Water to Wa merely its spirit, but almost its very letter. It is spedient course that could be adopted with respect to Paraguay. The affair of the Water Witch is by no means an obstinate one. It promises to yield to the first touch of judicious treatment. It is one of the commonest and most facile problems of diplomacy. Such cases are of nearly everyday occurrance, and, if we are not greatly mistaken, a far graver one of the same kind, in our Spauish relations, has been suffered to alumilar without interrupts from the spasmodic authorities as Washington for the last four or twe years. At all events the Paraynay quession is not in the slightest degree desperate, and neither demands nor justifies extreme preste, and neither demands nor justifies extreme measures. The President's requisition is as unnecessing the real days. We have no doubt that the Mississippin real days. We have no doubt that the Mississippin real days. ral does not, in a political sease at least, belong that class.

This, indeed, is sufficiently apparent from the nature of the case, but more specific reasons are not wanting. "Mr. Mallary," says the dispatch amounting the introduction of Senator Mason's resolution, "poke from good authority, saying that Daragnay is reasy at any time to right the wrong following articles: Knives 4,172 $6,829, scissor committed and the course is to send a representative for 1857, may be found the results of the course is to send a representative for 1857, may be found the results $1,07.50, propelling pencils $100.
